CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate Silver Bill Defeated in the House.

A TEXAS GIRL'S SUICIDE.

Followed by the Killing of Professor Davis.

Salvator Wins To-day's Race and Breaks the Record.

Congressional Matters.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Boutelle, president of the conference report on the naval appropriation bill, insisted on its consideration, notwithstanding the objection of Bland that he was thereby consuming the short time remaining for debate on the silver bill. Boutelle made a short explanation of the details of the agreement reached in conference and called for the previous question, which was ordered—yeas 139, nays 103—and the conference report was adopted.

On motion of Conger the debate on the silver bill was extended till 3 o'clock, when the vote will be taken. Morse of Massachusetts took the floor in support of the House bill and in opposition to the Senate bill.

The pair of 3 having arrived, Conger moved that the voting begin. Bland moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

Springer moved that separate votes be had on each section.

The first vote taken was on the proposition to concur in the first section of the Senate bill, providing for the free coinage of silver coins to be full legal tender, in place of the first section of the House bill, providing for the coinage of $4,500,000 worth of silver per month.

Springer's motion was defeated—yeas 135, nays 152; 21 Republicans voting aye and 19 Democrats no.

Springer withdrew his request for a separate vote on each section, and the House, by a rising vote of 146 to 86, non-concurred in all the remaining Senate amendments.

The bill now goes back to the Senate with a request that it appoint a conference committee.

SENATE.

The bill to prevent the transportation in bond of merchandise between the United States and Mexico and to restore that right whenever zona libre is abolished, was reported adversely. The Senate then went into executive session.

The doors were reopened and the Senate took up the House bill for the admission of Wyoming as a State.

Salvator Wins by a Head.

SHEPHERD BAY, June 25.—All the interest is centered in the great match race between D. S. Pulsifer's Tenny and the California horse Salvator. Large crowds began coming at noon, and by 2 o'clock over 20,000 persons had passed through the gates. The day is dry and hot and the track fast. It is confidently expected the record for the distance will be lowered. Salvator is the favorite in the betting.

Tenny, who was next to the rails, was in the lead for the first eighth. Salvator showed a head in front in passing the stand, and opened up a gap of two lengths in the back stretch. Entering the home stretch Salvator was a length ahead of Tenny, who was being whipped. Tenny rapidly closed up the gap in the last furlong, and Murphy was forced to use the whip on Salvator. When they passed under the wire Salvator was a neck before Tenny. The race was run in 2:08, beating the best record by one second and a half. The last quarter was made in 22 seconds.

A Dual Tragedy.

GROVETON (Texas), June 25.—Great excitement was caused here last night by the suicide of a beautiful young lady, Annie Turner, daughter of Judge John Turner. The excitement was intensified when the father took the pistol from the hands of his dying daughter and killed Professor Davis. Nothing is known as to the cause of the tragedy.

Many Lives Lost.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
BEST, June 25.—A foot-bridge leading from a steamer to the landing at St. Jean collapsed this morning and hundreds of people were thrown into the sea. Seven bodies have been recovered, but many persons are still missing.

The Lottery Bill Passed.

By Associated Press.]
BATON ROUGE (La.), June 25.—After the adoption of an amendment eliminating the monopoly features, the House passed the lottery bill by a vote of 66 to 29.

Another Strike.

By Associated Press.]
ST. LOUIS, June 24.—Four hundred and fifty men employed by the various roads struck at East St. Louis this forenoon for an advance in wages, and much perishable freight is tied up.

Iowa Republican Convention.

By Associated Press.]
SIoux CITY (Iowa), June 25.—The Republican State Convention met and formed a temporary organization, appointed the committees and took a recess.

The Dunbar Horror.

By Associated Press.]
DUNBAR (Pa.), June 25.—The rescuers feel positive that they are within sixty feet of the entombed miners, and they expect to reach them to-day.

A Large Percentage of Deaths.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
MADRID, June 25.—The total cases of cholera in Valencia to date are 196, of which 113 were fatal.

Severe Weather.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
LONDON, June 25.—Severe gales prevail along the coast of Scotland, and several fishing vessels are missing.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Perry & Novacovich received another carload of California potatoes to-day.

Undelivered telegrams remain in the telegraph office for Mary Wall, A. P. Bunum, B. F. Gullic, two, and R. W. Scott.

E. A. Kilbourne, who for the last two years has been a faithful employee of the Western Union in this city, left with his family this morning for Chicago, where he goes on account of the ill-health of his father. The vacancy caused by this change has been filled by A. B. Shearer of Phoenix, A. T.

WANTED THE ROOM.

A Jury Trial Found to be Too Slow.

The following is one of Bret Harte's stories of early life in the mines. It was over in the Mariposa Gulch in '50. They had never had a jury trial there. If a man stole a horse they lynched him, and that settled it. But the people, many of whom came from Massachusetts, began to tire of lynch law and sigh for the good old jury trial of the East. So one day when Bill Stephens had jumped a poor man's claim, the Massachusetts fellows resolved to give him a good old-fashioned jury trial. They took him into the back end of the board Postoffice, selected a jury and the trial commenced. Dozens of witnesses were called, and finally the jury retired to agree on a verdict. When they had about concluded that Bill was innocent, the boys came banging at the door.

"What do you want?" asked the foreman, through the keyhole.

"We want to know if you ain't about agreed on the verdict. If you ain't, you'll have to get out. We want this here room to lay out the corpse in."

Success of a Boston Tailor's Daughter.

This is the short cut taken by Eliza Hensler, the daughter of a poor Boston tailor, to marry a King. She was an opera singer with many personal attractions. Dom Fernando, the consort of Queen Maria Della Gloria of Portugal, took her under his protection. Soon after the death of his Queen he created the Boston girl Countess of Edia and afterward married her. Her husband being originally a Prince of the House of Coburg, the Boston girl became sister-in-law to Queen Victoria, aunt of the Prince of Wales and the present King of the Belgians, and mother-in-law of the reigning King of Portugal.

A Matter of Interest to Travelers.

Tourists, emigrants and mariners find that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicinal safeguard against unwholesome influences, upon which they can implicitly rely, since it prevents the effects of an unhealthy climate, vitiated atmosphere, unaccustomed or unwholesome diet, bad water or other conditions unfavorable to health, would otherwise produce. On long voyages, or journeys by land in latitudes adjacent to the equator, it is especially useful as a preventive of the febrile complaints and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, which are apt to attack natives of the temperate zones sojourning or traveling in such regions, and is an excellent protection against the influence of extreme cold, sudden changes of temperature, exposure to damp or extreme fatigue. It not only prevents intermittent and malarial fever, but eradicates them in fact which has been notorious for years past in North and South America, Mexico, the West Indies, Australia and other countries.

FOREST FIRES.

Destroy a Quantity of Young Timber.

UNSETTLED BULGARIAN AFFAIRS.

The Prince Ferdinand Pays a Visit to Vienna.

A Cotton Exchange Failure in New York.

Colorado Fires.

PALMER LAKE (Col.), June 25.—The forest fire which has been burning in Cook Creek District for the past few days, is still out of reach. It took a southwest course up what is known as Gerd's canyon, burning at a furious rate, and has at present destroyed 10,000 acres of young timber.

Charles F. Williams, proprietor of the Palmer Lake Park, received a telegram from Governor Cooper last evening, stating that he had ordered the Forest Commissioner to give the fire his immediate attention, but he has so far done nothing.

As mentioned in these dispatches last night, the most serious fire is near Boulder, but no additional dispatches have been received from that place to-day.

DENVER, June 25.—From telegraphic reports received here it would seem that a great portion of the Sangre de Cristo range in Colorado and New Mexico is in flames.

A special from Espanola, N. M., says: "The valley is obscured by smoke from the burning mountains east of Espanola. The fire extends over twenty miles up and down the Santa Fe range, and makes a beautiful and weird appearance. The fires have been burning for several days now, and no attempt has been made to extinguish them. The loss will be very heavy."

Pennsylvania Republican Convention.

HARRISBURG, June 25.—It took the entire police force to prevent outsiders from breaking down the doors to get into the hall at the Republican State Convention to-day. George S. Graham was made temporary Chairman.

On re-assembling, Walter Lyon was made permanent Chairman. The platform endorsed the McKinley tariff bill and requests the strictest enforcement of laws forbidding the entrance into this country of foreign papers and contract laborers. The platform continues: "We are uncompromisingly hostile to mono-metalism, whether of gold or silver, and earnestly favor the use of both as coin metals. The Republican party of Pennsylvania demands the enactment by Congress now in session of such legislation as will, while securing the fullest use of silver as money, most certainly secure and maintain a parity between the two metals."

Sunday-School Convention.

PITTSBURG, June 25.—The International Sunday-school Convention reassembled this morning. The report of the statistical Secretary shows the number of officers and teachers in the United States to be 1,120,433; scholars, 8,598,851.

The next World's Convention will be held in America in 1893. The committee recommends that it be held in Chicago in connection with the World's Fair, and that the Sunday-schools of America erect a building on the Fair grounds and work up a large attendance from abroad.

The Illinois Central Strike.

By Associated Press.]
CHICAGO, June 25.—There is no change in the situation on the Illinois Central; everything is tied up. A committee from Cairo arrived this morning to demand the discharge of the Superintendent of the Cairo division. The Chief of the Brotherhood of Trainmen declined to recognize the strike. Much perishable freight is being delayed.

A Business Failure.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
NEW YORK, June 25.—Just before the close of the cotton exchange to-day word was received that the prominent concern of H. E. Hueston & Co. had failed. They have been large operators on the bull side, and a sharp decline in prices forced out their margins. Their liabilities have not yet been ascertained.

A Mysterious Movement.

By Cable and Associated Press.]
VIENNA, June 25.—It is reported that Prince Ferdinand, the ruler of Bulgaria, in a sudden and mysterious manner, has started for this city, and his visit here is stated to be in connection with the critical position in Bulgaria.

Garibaldi's Tomb.

Garibaldi's tomb in Caprea is to be made a national monument, and the island is to be devoted to the purposes of a home for old sailors. A light-house also will be erected there.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

THE following from the Salt Lake Tribune applies with equal force to this locality: There are a great many people in this city who contribute monthly a part of their earnings to the Louisiana Lottery. We trust that they will make a note of the offer that that concern is making for the privilege of conducting its business in the State of Louisiana, and have time to reflect that they help make up that tremendous fund. Perhaps that will lead them to the further reflection that it is a risky business to try and make a living out of a game that collects such tremendous percentages.

AN Eastern paper declares that W. L. Scott, the coal baron, and the man who wrote to Mr. Dewey, that he would be relied upon to stand by the corporations if he were re-elected, as he was a friend of the monopolists, the same man who has been nominated for Congress by the Democracy of the Erie district of Pennsylvania, is a notorious oppressor of the Spring Valley miners and is in all respects a hard, merciless and relentless man.

THE agreement of the conferees on the Naval Appropriation bill is favorable for Pacific Coast interests. It will equip Mare Island for steel ship-building and prepare the way for a new dock yard, probably at some point on Puget Sound. That is needed to offset the British establishment at Esquimalt. It will also be convenient to great natural facilities for navy yard operations.

A good deal is being said lately about the slow progress of work on the Nicaragua Canal. It looks as though an effort were about to work up sentiment in favor of a Government subsidy by magnifying the difficulties under which the enterprise is laboring. It will probably be found that after Congress has adjourned and the rainy season in Nicaragua is over work will go on briskly.

THE Bulletin says: Last Sunday a man killed himself near Ukiah by pulling a gun toward himself. Every shooting season a number of just such accidents occur, but the warnings seem to do no good. The man who will permit the muzzle of a gun to bear upon himself, or any one else, has not sense enough to be intrusted with such a weapon.

Good Indian ponies can be bought for $5 a head at Elmsburg, Wash.

The fund raised in Georgia for Mrs. Jefferson Davis amounted to nearly $8,000.

An exchange says the price of seal-skin sacks is to be advanced in August.

A movement is on foot to establish a Government park on the battlefield at Yorktown.

The Salt Lake papers say that city will have a population of 100,000 by the close of the year.

The cable between Halifax and Bermuda is expected to be laid and in running order by July 1st.

A Toronto agency is said to get from $20 to $30 a head for smuggling Chinamen into the United States.

Maryland is about to erect a shaft to the memory of Leonard Calver, the first Governor of that State.

The Connecticut peach crop is expected to be a large one this year. The estimate is 30,000 baskets.

A band of Indians broke up the fireman's parade at Pierre, S. D. The Indians were loaded with fire-water.

The first through train passed over the new Canadian Pacific route between Montreal and Chicago June 18th.

A circular has been issued in New York calling a meeting to form a "Citizens' movement to purify municipal politics."

The United States District Court at Seattle is now engaged in trying Herbert F. Beecher on indictments of extortion and embezzlement.

Chun Lin, a seismologist from a large camp of Chinese miners at Escondido, was captured near the Juarez yesterday and taken to San Diego.

Mou, Sit-koon, convict, Cal., is about ten miles from Mount Shasta, and the people there have discovered no change in the appearance of the peaks.

The entire business portion of Cerillos, N. M., fifty miles north of Albuquerque, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss will probably reach $100,000.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. 19

Weak Women

Owe to themselves a duty to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, in view of the great relief it has given those who suffer from ailments peculiar to the sex. By purifying the blood, regulating important organs, strengthening the nerves, and toning the whole system, it restores the debilitated to health.

After 15 Years.

"For 15 years my mother has been troubled with milk leg. She went to different parts of California, as persons said the climate might help her, but it was of no avail, and I, being a druggist, thought I would get her to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she had taken half a bottle she said she was improving, so she continued until she took half a dozen bottles, and now she is perfectly well. For nearly fifteen years she was unable to walk around, but now she can walk as well as ever." T. F. BLAKE, San Francisco, with C. F. Richards & Co., Wholesale Druggists.

Like a New Creature.

"I have been for years trying to get help for that terrible general debility and weakness so common to women. Within a year I have taken ten or twelve bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and now I feel like a new creature." Mrs. F. B. ROSS, Marlin, Texas.

An Old Soldier's Story.

In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea, since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief I would ignore my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and the results follow—I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their service to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. Bending, Halsey, Ore. For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

Unpleasantness Avoided.

Several months ago, Mr. Henry Plummer of Clements, Cal., who is subject to cramps, was taken with a severe attack. He had been accustomed to get relief by dosing with morphine, but the disagreeable effect that followed would make him miserable for hours after the cramp had been relieved. I persuaded him to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was much pleased with its effect as it was almost instantaneous, and no disagreeable after effects accompanied its use. THE FIGHT ON SILVER.

Hon. Francis G. Newlands Tells of the Long Struggle for Free Coinage.

WHERE THE PRESIDENT STANDS.

Compromise Suggested—Window Sticks on Bullion Redemption—Work of the Silver Committee.

Mr. Newlands was interviewed by a GAZETTE reporter on the pending legislation regarding silver at Washington. He said that he had been interviewed so often since leaving Washington that he would refer, for brevity, to the interview in the Salt Lake Times appearing in these columns, for an expression of his views.

"You draw it rather mild on Window?" said the reporter.
"Well," replied Mr. Newlands, "I don't care to do injustice to any one, but on reading the interview carefully, you will observe that I refer to his report to Congress, which undoubtedly did good service for the silver cause, so far as its statement of facts and existing conditions was concerned, but for his recommendations, called the Window bill, I have nothing but condemnation, as it involved the abandonment of the bimetallic principle in reducing silver to a commodity, a mere security for enlarged circulation. The idea of the President and Mr. Window seemed to be that silver could not be remonetized, except by the joint action of the civilized nations, and that until such joint action could be secured, it was better to maintain and increase the value of silver by increased purchases and to use it as security for enlarged circulation."

"In an interview which I had with the President he complained of the delay of Congress in passing a silver bill, and said very expressly that it should be passed early and planted with the crops. I told him such a bill would have been passed long ago had it not been for the hostility of the Administration, and he interrupted me by saying that no man in the country was more friendly than he to silver, that his friendship was shown by his advocacy of a system which would maintain the parity of the silver certificates with gold, whilst the extreme silver men proposed to walk on the edge of peril and to force a bill which might and probably would cause silver and gold to part company, thus causing the gold to go out of the country and the silver of the world to come in. We discussed the matter at some length, and I subsequently wrote a letter to him on the subject. But I won't trouble you with details. I merely state what I have in order to do justice to the President, who, I am convinced, animated by a sincere wish to utilize silver very largely, though he is mistaken in his method."

"Mr. Newlands spoke in most complimentary terms of the speeches of Senators Stewart and Jones, which he declared were the best ever delivered by either. The persuasiveness of Jones and the combativeness of Stewart made a very strong team."

"By the by," said Mr. Newlands, "I don't think Nevada is doing justice to Bartine. The Silver Committee thought well of his work, and General Warner told me that he regarded him as the best informed man on the silver question in the House Committee on Coinage. Had it not been for his work the House bill would not have been so good, as it was, of many of the objectionable features recommended by Window. Of course he hesitated to cut himself off from the party organization at the start, though later on he did so completely. But I can understand how a firm and self-reliant man would hesitate and temporize, hoping that eventually the party would come right. You must remember that it is not a mere question of courage; it is a question of judgment."

"The man who refuses to vote with his party on a measure which is sought to be pushed as a party measure, is ostracized and his usefulness to his constituents almost ended. The Speaker will refuse to recognize him. He can hardly have the opportunity to address the House except by the courtesy of some Democrat who grants him a part of his time. The administration looks on him coldly. He is without influence or ability to aid his constituents or to press measures for their benefit. As a matter of judgment, only extreme cases will warrant such a course. The necessity finally became apparent and Bartine was as firm as any one."

"What further steps does the Silver Committee propose to take in regard to agitation?"
"Unless a satisfactory silver bill is passed a silver convention will be called. There will be no effort to form a silver party, but those men will be opposed in both parties who favor bullion redemption."

"It is proposed also to form a bimetallic league to unite with the leagues of England, France and Germany in uniting a return to free coinage. I addressed the silver men in Denver and Salt Lake on this subject, and the proposition was favorably received. The agitation in those countries will be urged there, as here, with the agricultural and producing classes. There is a strong feeling growing for the unification of the Northwest in all matters relating to its interests, and I found the people enthusiastic upon this subject."

"The Silver State says you are in favor of organizing a silver party?"
"Oh no. Mr. Kelly misunderstands me. I believe in pressing one for free coinage, but simply as an issue in existing parties. I do believe, however, that all Republicans who persist in voting for bullion redemption should be opposed both for renomination and at the polls."

The following is Mr. Newlands' interview with the Times:
"I am certain," said Mr. Newlands, "that the President will veto the bill as passed by the Senate. He expressed himself so unequivocally on the subject, both to myself and to others, that there is no doubt that this would be his course. He is a man of determination, and not the weak man he is often represented to be."

THE PRESIDENT'S POSITION.

"The President declares himself as good a friend of silver as there is in the country, but he claims that, with free coinage, we don't know to what extent other nations will throw their silver into this country, and that we don't know to what extent the work in silver in this country will be stimulated. He believes in a limited purchase of silver and the issuance of certificates redeemable in coin or, upon demand of the holder and in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, redeemable in bullion. In other words, he believes in the Window bill."

"But the day before I left Washington the President sent for two Senators and told them that he wished the silver bill to go through as a party measure, and that he was willing to waive redemption in bullion and sign a bill providing for the purchase of $4,500,000 worth of silver per month, upon which certificates were to be issued; these certificates were to be a legal tender."

"I infer, however, from the bill that has been passed that this compromise suggested by the President was not accepted by enough Republican Senators to enable it to pass as a party measure. Bad blood has been stirred up by protracted discussion and debate, and the Senators from Colorado, Montana and Kansas probable determined to force a vote upon free coinage. It is possible that other complications arose after I left, but the good judgment of Senator Teller can be trusted not to imperil the cause of silver, and possibly fearing that the House might juggle with this compromise suggested by the President, he and his associates may have concluded to take an extreme position in order to make more sure of ultimate success."

HARRISON IS FRIENDLY.

"I am, however, firmly convinced from my interview with the President that the President is friendly to silver, and that his tenacity with reference to bullion redemption is due to his desire, as he expresses it, to anchor the value of the certificates to the commercial values of the world in order that silver and gold may not part company in this country. He has ascertained, however, that the men of the West regard bullion redemption with suspicion as a measure that may lead to the ultimate demonetization of silver, the retirement of the certificates issued for the bullion, and the throwing of the accumulated bullion upon the markets of the world. Whilst President Harrison does not share in these fears as to the effects of the bullion redemption, he has finally yielded to his opponents in the matter. I am of the opinion that now a compromise measure will be finally agreed upon by Congress with the possible substitution of $4,500,000 ounces of silver for the $4,500,000 worth, and the striking out of the clause in regard to bullion redemption."

THE PROBABLE EFFECT.

"What effect upon the success of the Republican party in the West will the opposition of Tom Reed and others in the House have?"
"I do not think it will have any serious effect if a satisfactory bill is passed, and I think this will be the case. But if a satisfactory silver bill does not go through this Congress, I fear the effect on the party in the West will be disastrous."

"Will the compromise suggested by President Harrison satisfy the West?"
"As a progressive step, yes, if 4,500,000 ounces of silver are substituted for $4,500,000 worth. The advantage in this will be that it will provide for the purchase of a fixed quantity of silver, and that the quantity will not diminish as the price of silver goes up, and thus in a measure retard its advance."

BACK TO THE OLD PRICE.

"Will not the enactment of such a law send the price of silver away up?"
"There will, I think, be a gradual advance in the price, and I believe that silver will go back to its old value—$1.29 per ounce. This will not happen, of course, if the increase in price results in any large increase of the production. But I don't think there is any surplus of silver in the world that can be forced upon us, although the President has some such apprehensions, and I have no fear of production being increased. In fact, if allowance should be made, however, to the President for giving some weight to the possible effect of yet unknown factors."

WINDOW'S POSITION.

"Now that I am out of the heart of discussion, I think I ought to say that I don't regard Secretary Window as unfriendly to silver, although the silver committee has been fighting his measure. It is impossible to read his report of the condition of the finances of the country, without being convinced that he wishes to both largely increase the purchase and the price of bullion. Two things indicate this. He candidly admitted that the currency of the country ought to be increased, and that it could stand an annual increase of $50,000,000. He also declared that the silver of the country ought to be utilized in making this increase, and at the same time stated unequivocally that there was no surplus of silver in the world. Thus he gave the weight of his authority to three propositions that Congress might otherwise have debated upon for two years. His mistake was in his recommendation as to bullion redemption. He did not reflect that whilst he provided for the redemption of silver certificates in so many gold dollars worth of silver bullion, he thus anchored their value to gold and was thus in reality establishing firmly a gold standard and opening the door to the possible ultimate demonetization of silver. While the silver committee has been endeavoring to force Mr. Window's proposition, I think we ought to concede that he did good work for the silver in his report at least, and WORK OF THE COMMITTEE.

"The two Senators to whom the President communicated his position were Stewart and Jones. They communicated with me a few hours before my departure, and then I considered that it would carry and that the whole question was practically settled; and I got think, in spite of the new turn of affairs, that some such measure would be passed and signed by the President. The St. Louis convention first woke up this people of the country generally to the importance of the subject. The farmers of the West and the planters of the South were there, and acted as missionaries for the cause. The work of that convention was supplemented by the efforts of the committee appointed, with Gen. A. J. Warner of Ohio at its head. The committee has been in session continuously at Washington, and has done a great work in an educational way by the distribution of literature, speeches, pamphlets and addresses and by organizing agitation among the farmers and labor organizations. The work has been systematically done. Gen. Warner is an able, energetic man, and the work accomplished is largely due to his efforts."

"It is now proposed to extend the same kind of agitation to England, Germany and France, with a view to bringing about action of the nations for free coinage."

THE GREAT WAR PLAY.

The Shenandoah Company Put in the Shade by "Held by the Enemy."

"Held by the enemy," W. Gillett's notably successful American play, presented by the great New York cast with smoothness which comes through long continued success, will be seen here next Saturday evening. Mr. Gillett's play has the advantage of being not only a drama of great strength and absorbing interest, but to be abundantly supplied with comedy of a rare order of excellence. It is replete with novel devices and truth and symmetry in the representation. Amid the confusion and clamor of an engagement, the marvelous, mad gallop of horses furiously urged and the rumble and roar of distant cannonading, it is difficult to realize that it is but a picture exquisitely drawn and true to the life.

The Deering Mowers Take the Lead.

Reno Nev., June 25, 1890.
Jaques & Son, GENTLEMEN—I have used the "Deering Giant" Mower this season and am satisfied that it is the best machine I have ever used, and that it does 20 per cent. more work than any other. It is also much lighter on the horses and draws much easier. In fact, I can cheerfully recommend the "Deering" Mowers to all who want a first-class machine.

The Cold Spell.

We have had no real good "growing weather" in this State this summer, and the result is going to be short hay crops. The fruit has suffered more or less by late frosts and all garden truck has been partially or totally ruined down by the cold nights. It is hard work to make weather that is entirely satisfactory to all interests.

Missing Officers.

HE WAS ASHAMED.

A few months ago one of the unfortunate inmates in the San Francisco Alms House was inspired by the sensational statements in the newspapers with the belief that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla would help him. But without money, how to get it was the question. Finally he wrote to the Edwin W. Joy Co., appealing to their generosity, and it was answered, the coveted preparation being sent by the next parcel delivery. Its effect is best told in a subsequent letter, from which we quote the following:—

"I suppose you know me by this writing, and my circumstances are especially adapted for correcting spring disorders, such as impure blood, tired brain and liver and kidneys; drive out all impurities from the blood, and malaria from the system. Only one pill at a dose. Try them this spring. Sold at 25 cents a box by S. J. Hodgkinson."

A Fine Store.

A. Nelson's new cigar and tobacco store, next to John Sunderland's clothing department, will be ready for occupancy on the 25th inst., at which time Mr. Nelson will move from his present location.

Spring Medicine.

Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills on account of their mild action are especially adapted for correcting spring disorders, such as impure blood, tired brain and liver and kidneys; drive out all impurities from the blood, and malaria from the system. Only one pill at a dose. Try them this spring. Sold at 25 cents a box by S. J. Hodgkinson."
